Dill to the Rescue! What Happens When A Dog "Saves" His Neighborhood

Dill is a small, fluffy dog, but in his imagination he is Kid Canine—Superhero! With his trusty sidekick, Squirrel, Dill stands ready to save his neighborhood from any and all trouble. The problem is, Dill often sees trouble where there really isn't any.

Take for example the time he wrestled the snake out of the neighbors yard, only to find it was actually a garden hose. Or the time he saved the neighborhood from space aliens, that ended up to be a tulip bed. Each day seems to bring Dill another chance to be a superhero...where a superhero really isn't needed.

Embarrassed by too many of these unfortunate misunderstandings, Dill retires as Kid Canine and spends his days alone in his doghouse. Until his neighbors help him to realize that he does indeed possess the best superhero skill of all.

Written to entertain and inspire the young, old, and everyone in between, Kid Canine—Superhero! is illustrated in the style of a comic book. The bold, colorful drawings bring the reader into Dill's imaginary superhero world.

Author P.T. Custard was inspired to write Kid Canine—Superhero! after watching her dog Dill playing in the yard while she mowed the lawn. Dill methodically moved all his toys out of the way of the mower as though saving them from certain doom. His look of utter satisfaction for a job well done led the author to imagine Dill fancied himself a superhero.
