The Dog That Went "Moo" What Happens When A Howl Turns Heroic

Jules is a smart dog, but a very bored dog indeed. One afternoon as he lounges near his lighthouse by the sea, he begins to think of all the ways he could become useful.

He contemplates working on a farm, traveling the world as a clown, or becoming an avalanche rescue dog, but quickly learns his talents aren't meant for those sorts of things.

When a thick fog moves in, threatening to endanger all the boats near Jules' lighthouse, the clever canine noticed his howl sounded great in the mist. "Moo! Moooo! Mooooo!" Jules had finally found his calling - the excitement he was looking for was right in front of him the whole time.

Written to entertain and inspire the young and young at heart, Jules the Lighthouse Dog is based on a real dog named Jules who lived with the author in the lighthouse keeper's quarters at the Pt. Loma Lighthouse in San Diego. Jules really does have a howl that sounds like a "moo"!
